300 Ontario and Northern New York Kiwanians in 42nd Annual Observance.

Kiwanians were called upon to rededicate themselves to share the burden of community leadership by Judge Frederick C. Marshall, Buffalo, governor of New York state Kiwanis, when he spoke to more than 300 service club members Tuesday evening at the Hotel Woodruff.

The gathering, largest Kiwanis get-together ever held in Watertown, was sponsored by the local club for the 42nd annual observance of Canada-U. S. Goodwill week. There were service club members here from north and central New York clubs, as well as a large delegation from Ontaco and Quebec.

Messages from President Lyndon B. Johnson and Canada's prime minister, Lester B. Pearson, congratulating Kiwanis on its fine program of U.S.-Canada International Goodwill, were read by Rodney C. Abare, immediate past president of the local club Activities To Get Under and chairman of the internathe Ontario division of State Kiwanis.
