

CHRISTIAN McAUSLAND 1875

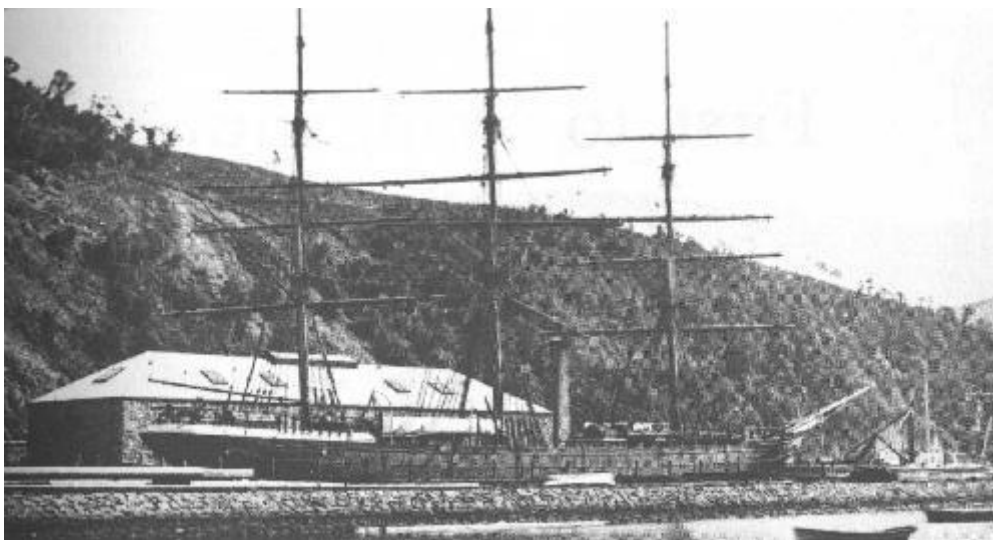

Southland Times Monday September 6th 1875, p2, c3.

The Christian McAusland - This vessel with 339 immigrants on board, arrived at the Bluff on Sunday 29th August 1875. After a passage of 91 days, from Glasgow. Of the number 295 are Scotch, 33 Irish and 3 English.

A good deal of sickness was experienced during the voyage, and the ship has been placed in quarantine. An officer in the Immigration Department and the Health Officer Dr Driger went to receive the vessel, and we learn that there are now on board 2 cases of Scarlatina, 12 of Whooping Cough and four of Bronchitis. During the voyage there were 20 cases of Scarlatina and one of Typhoid Fever

There were 11 deaths, one from Typhoid Fever, six from Whooping Cough complicated with Scarlatina, two from convolutions and three from diseases peculiar to infants.

The Christian McAusland was built in 1869 by Scott of Greenock, for Patrick Henderson. She was an iron craft of 962 tons, and was specially fitted up for the conveyance of passengers to New Zealand.
