NECROLOGIE

Mme Francis de CROISSET, née Marie-Thérèse de CHEVIGNE, veuve du célèbre écrivain, est décédée hier à l'âge de 80 ans, dans sa propriété de Grasse, où elle résidait depuis plusieurs années. Les obsèques auront lieu lundi à la cathédrale de Grasse et l'inhumation mercredi à Paris.

Mme Francis de Croisset était la mère de la comtesse Marie-Laure de Noailles et de notre ami Philippe de Croisset, directeur commercial du périodique « Marie-Claire », auxquels nous présentons nos sympathies émuës.

'POPE DID HAVE CHRIST VISION' SAYS VATICAN

VATICAN CITY. Monday.— Reports that the Pope had a vision of Christ during his illness last December were confirmed today by the Vatican Press office.

An article in an Italian magazine, Oggi, last Saturday said that the Pope was praying when his suffering was at its worst. "He saw the sweet figure of Christ at his bedside. It was not a dream. He was fully awake and lucid in that moment."—B U P.
